

Hope Against Hope

August 14, 2011

Fr. Stephen Gauthier

Read Matthew 15:21-28

Worship

At first, there was no answer to the Canaanite woman's earnest pleas: he did not answer her a word (v. 23). However, rather than giving up, the woman pressed on, and by doing so became a true daughter of Abraham, the one of whom it is written in hope he believed against hope (Romans 4:18). Have you ever taken God's apparent silence as a special opportunity to respond in faith (Though he slay me, I will hope in him – Job 13:15).

Mission

The Canaanite woman was not "put off" by the fact that God seemed to favor others. Do you at times perhaps begrudge God's generosity to others (Matthew 20:15)? Do you allow yourself to be distracted by spiritual envy—choosing to look at those around you rather than keeping your eyes fixed firmly on Jesus?

Hope Against Hope

August 14, 2011

Fr. Stephen Gauthier

Read Matthew 15:21-28

Worship

At first, there was no answer to the Canaanite woman's earnest pleas: he did not answer her a word (v. 23). However, rather than giving up, the woman pressed on, and by doing so became a true daughter of Abraham, the one of whom it is written in hope he believed against hope (Romans 4:18). Have you ever taken God's apparent silence as a special opportunity to respond in faith (Though he slay me, I will hope in him – Job 13:15).

Mission

The Canaanite woman was not "put off" by the fact that God seemed to favor others. Do you at times perhaps begrudge God's generosity to others (Matthew 20:15)? Do you allow yourself to be distracted by spiritual envy—choosing to look at those around you rather than keeping your eyes fixed firmly on Jesus?

Hope Against Hope

August 14, 2011

Fr. Stephen Gauthier

Read Matthew 15:21-28

Worship

At first, there was no answer to the Canaanite woman's earnest pleas: he did not answer her a word (v. 23). However, rather than giving up, the woman pressed on, and by doing so became a true daughter of Abraham, the one of whom it is written in hope he believed against hope (Romans 4:18). Have you ever taken God's apparent silence as a special opportunity to respond in faith (Though he slay me, I will hope in him – Job 13:15).

Mission

The Canaanite woman was not "put off" by the fact that God seemed to favor others. Do you at times perhaps begrudge God's generosity to others (Matthew 20:15)? Do you allow yourself to be distracted by spiritual envy—choosing to look at those around you rather than keeping your eyes fixed firmly on Jesus?