

REZ WOMEN

Prayer Cells

A Women's Prayer Cell is a small group of women who commit to meet regularly to hold one another up in prayer. Groups are generally comprised of 2-4 women, and they meet once a week or once every two weeks. This is a great way to make a strong and intimate connection with other women in the church. Prayer cells are a safe place where women can share each other's joys and burdens as they seek the Lord together.

Day/Time/Location: To be determined by each group.

Date/Time: Saturday mornings, 8:00 am, On-going

Journey Into the Parables

Wednesdays, June 16 through August 4

7:00 - 8:30 pm

Ericksen home, Wheaton

Join with other women and listen to what God might say to you through Jesus' stories. After hearing a parable told in story form, we'll take time to go deeper through questions, meditation, journaling, writing, prayer and/or artistic expression. If you are familiar with Lectio Divina, this has some similarities. Teens are welcome.

First meeting will be Wednesday, June 16 from 7:00 - 8:30 and continue for 8 weeks, through August 4. Missing a week or two is not a problem. We'll meet at Phyllis Ericksen's home, 1034 E. Jefferson, Wheaton. For questions or to reserve a spot contact Phyllis at (630)462-9267 (unavailable by phone until June 9th) or phylericksen@gmail.com.
